BREAK UP ALLEGED GANG OF OUTLAWS

Posse Captures Two Who Are Believed to Have Terrorized Panhandle.

Amazillo, Texas, Jan. 20.—The capture of John Kunc and George Biggs ends, it is believed, the depredations of the most notorious gang which has infested the panhandle since the days of "Bully the Kid."

A posse yesterday surrounded the men near the Texas-Oklahoma line, and being heavily armed, a fight was expected, but the number of the posse overpowered the two men and they surrendered without a shot.

Henry Starr is the alleged half-breed leader of the band which has been stealing horses and cattle and holding up ranchers throughout Roberts, Hemphill and Lipscomb counties. A reward of $500 was placed on the head of each bandit, and so desperate had their deeds become that the sheriffs of five counties had taken the trail. Starr and his two companions are still being sought by a posse, which is determined to capture him dead or alive.

The gang is believed to have robbed a bank at Crawford, Oklahoma, recently.

TWO GET FATAL WOUNDS.

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 20.—In a fight here early today Will Mason, a negro, was stabbed in the lung and probably will die. Hattie Baxter, a negroess was shot in the stomach and is perhaps fatally wounded.
